Garden/Landscape Aide, Nursery Aide or Plant Receiver/Sorter

- 1. Construction: Saturday March 7 through Thursday March 12
SHIFTS: 8:00am-3:00pm, 2:00pm-7:00pm
- 2. Changeover: Monday March 16, 8pm-11pm
- 3. Move out: Sunday March 22 5pm-11pm, Monday March 23 &
Tuesday March 23
SHIFTS: 8:00am-3:00pm, 1:00pm-6:00pm

Canada Blooms again co-locating with the National Home Show. The Canada Blooms Festival will take place in our new location in Hall G and Heritage Court and part of Hall F. The National Home Show will take place in the remainder of Hall F and Halls A, B, C and D

The main entrance to Canada Blooms is through Hall B, with a secondary entrance at Heritage Court (servicing TTC riders, Bus Groups and additional parking). The main entrance to the National Home Show is through Hall A.

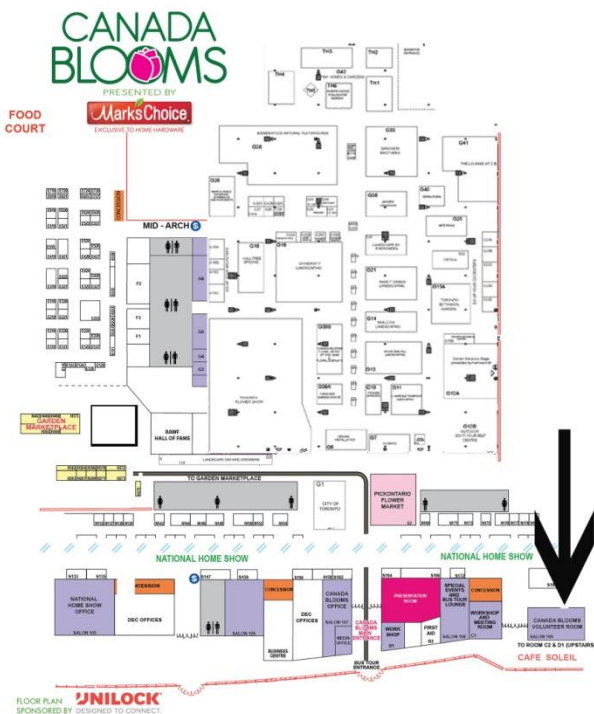

The Canada Blooms Festival Office will be located in Salon 107 adjacent to the Hall B entrance.

The co-location means that the ticket for either event will allow entry into both Canada Blooms and the National Home Show.

VOLUNTEER CHECK IN—Salon 109 (across from Café Soliel)

All volunteers must check into Salon 109 (down the hall from the Festival Office, 107, Entrance B) located at the Hall C exit (there is no entrance through Hall C, you must enter either through the volunteer room, or Hall B).

Please use entrance from the Galleria (no entrance ticket is needed from this side).

Volunteers will not need a ticket to enter the Volunteer Room. Security has been authorized to allow participants wearing proper attire (Volunteer Apron) entrance into the event. Upon finishing your shift we would ask volunteers to have their hands stamped on exit so that they can re-enter and enjoy the festival. Upon returning your apron you will receive a ticket for a future visit to Canada Blooms should you want to visit the festival at a later date (see the PLEASE NOTE section below).

PLEASE NOTE: As a thank you for your dedication and hard work, along with your admission into Canada Blooms on the day that you volunteer, we will offer our volunteers a Canada Blooms ticket for each shift worked (to a max. of 3 tickets) to come back and enjoy Canada Blooms on another day. Please note that tickets will be given only after the shift has been completed and your apron has been returned to the volunteer room. For those working the final Sunday, please contact co-ordinator to discuss.

After your final shift please pick up your Certificate of Appreciation and if required, have Barb Ginsberg/Marilyn Maleta or Tanya Smith sign any proof of volunteer hours slips.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION:

Please do not bring any valuables to the festival. Although we try our best, Canada Blooms is not responsible for lost or stolen items left in the Volunteer Room. There is a coat check available (for a fee) should you require it.

What to wear... warm clothes and comfortable shoes are essential. The temperature on the Festival floor can quite cool in order to keep the plants looking fresh. If you have a nametag from your horticultural group or garden club, please feel free to wear it during your shift.

Food and beverage... there are concession stands and the exhibitor lounge (salon 101) open for purchase of food and beverage. You are welcome to bring food of your own.

BRING A REFILLABLE WATER BOTTLE – there will be water fountains available .

- Able to handle money
- Able to point out Canada Blooms features and highlights

EXPANDED: Gardening Experience Workshop & Children's Activation Areas

(2-3 per shift: Workshop area, 2 per other location – 11am-4pm)

1. The Mark's Choice Gardening Experience Workshop Area consists of pre-planned workshops designed to educate people on different floral, horticultural and fun activities.

When the area has scheduled activities, volunteers may be asked to act a gatekeeper, insuring that those who are attending have paid, people do not sit in the workshop area if they are not part of the class. If spaces are available, volunteers may direct visitors as how to sign up, be aware that money may have to be collected by Blooms staff before they can participate. Volunteers may be asked to help neaten up the area after each workshop to prepare for the next workshop.

When official workshops are not scheduled the area will be a Gardening Experience activation designed to educate visitors on the importance of soils, seed starting and care for plants. Volunteers will be given a script . WHEN MASTER GARDENERS LI'L SPROUNTS EDUCATION SESSIONS ARE ON, Volunteers will assist the Master Gardener in Charge, and when the session is over resume providing soil information to visitors and to assisting "plant seed and take it with you".

2. The Tree-sure Hunt, volunteers will hand out a scavenger hunt to children under 12 (approx 500 per day) and direct them as to how to complete the hunt (information will be given), the final step will have children end at the Mark's Choice Gardening Experience Workshop where they will be given a completion "package" of seeds, volunteers may be asked to help turn scavenger hunt form into a "pot" for planting.

3. The Vegepod Education Centre consists of a plant and take activation. Volunteers will assist the Vegepod Manager in Charge as needed with helping with the activation as well as helping to keeping area neat and tidy.

4. The National Home Show Children's Activation Area, where volunteers will help encourage visiting children to take part in crafts and colouring. Volunteers may be asked to help children with crafts. Parents should be reminded politely that they should remain in sight of children, this is a fun activation NOT a babysitting service.

Preferred Qualification and Skills

- Pleasant and welcoming
- Able to provide brief general knowledge on seed starting per instructions given by Coordinator
- Able to follow sponsor script on soil usage
- Able to stand for shift
- Hands may get dirty, working with seeds and soil
- Able to work with all types of personalities

Ballot Counting (2-4 volunteers per shift)

Volunteers who would like to sit will help us tally and track ballots for the various draws taking place at Canada Blooms. We will also need volunteers to collect ballots at various times and locations throughout the day.

There will be two entries on each ballot for tabulation – People's Choice Feature Garden, People's Choice Professional Floral Artist (Floral Alley) and People's Choice Gnome (Gilda's Club Gnome Garden)

Preferred Qualification and Skills

- Detail oriented
- Able to sort by categories
- Able to tabulate

Fulfillment (10-20 per shift)

We may need volunteers to help us stuff "goodie bags" for our guests, special events or special features. The number of shifts, times and volunteers required depends on what events are happening per festival.

We do require help during move in of the festival to get a reserve of bags (Wednesday/Thursday prior to start of Festival).

Preferred Qualification and Skills

- Detail oriented
- Able to sort by categories
- Able to stand for periods of time

Horticulture/Design Monitor (Floral Areas & Gnome Garden) (12-18 per shift)

Be the welcoming committee – not just a security guard.

But this is a DO NOT TOUCH job to make sure the competition displays are not tampered with, as well as other duties as they arise; answering questions, etc.

Circulate throughout the Floral Displays to ensure members of the public do not touch designs, plants, sit on walls or other staging, or try to remove materials that belong to Canada Blooms.

Remember to rotate around the area with other volunteers rather than stay in 1 spot, volunteers may be asked to help monitor other areas as needed.

Encourage visitors to ask questions/agree with judges/understand a special exhibit
Talk about the festival pointing out special features, provide directions to washroom, stages and features.

Any Horticultural questions which you cannot answer can be directed to a Garden Club of Toronto member present or Master Gardener (see designated areas). Each of the shifts should have a designated shift captain whose job it will be to report any unforeseen problems to the Canada Blooms Festival office.

NOTE: PLEASE LET VOLUNTEER COORDINATOR KNOW IF YOU HAVE FLORAL DESIGN/HORTICULTURE EXPERIENCE TO SEE IF YOU QUALIFY FOR AN "ASK THE EXPERT" POSITION

Preferred Qualification and Skills

- Friendly
- Some understanding of plants - this is ideal for horticulture/floral students

InfoCentres – (4-6 per shift depending on number of booths)

This is one of the most important positions, volunteers are the main source of information for the festival. Volunteers be answering general festival question from information provided by festival. Should be able to answer general questions on both Canada Blooms and The National Home Show and direct visitors – bathrooms, features, stages, food locations, special events, etc.

Preferred Qualification and Skills

- Friendly & Welcoming
- Able to read a floor plan follow information given by Volunteer Coordinator
- Able to work with all types of personalities

Ice Cream Cart Host (1-2 per shift)

SHIFTS: SAME AS REGULAR SHIFTS

There are 3 Harrison Ice Cream on a Stick Ice Cream stands around the festival floor. Volunteers will be responsible for the cutting, dipping and creation of 'ice cream on a stick' cones. PLEASE NOTE PEANUTS ARE USED IN THE MAKING OF THIS ICE CREAM TREAT.

Volunteers will be escorted to each cart by a Harrison staff person who will explain all the details.

This is one of the most important positions at Canada Blooms. Ice Cream sales are one of the ways that Canada Blooms earns revenue to give back to horticultural and community projects.

Each cart will have a pair of volunteers and a Harrison Employee. We ask that volunteers never leave a cart unattended. Please remain at the carts until the next pair of volunteers are able to take over or the Volunteer Coordinator or Harrison employee indicates you can go.

Gather in volunteer room 15 minutes prior to shift for orientation.

Harrison staff will be in charge of collecting the money made from selling ice cream.

This is a great position for those looking to fill volunteer hours because it offers a variety of skills, social skills (greeting people, interacting with public by being outgoing but not pushy), dexterity (creating ice cream cones, cutting, dipping) use of memory (pointing out special features, directing guests), math skills (making change), responsibility (handling money), problem solving (working with cart mate, making suggestions of products for visitor agreement), working toward a team goal (raising money to go towards horticulture and community projects).

Preferred Qualification and Skills

- Friendly
- Able to work quickly,
- Comfortable working with ice cream, chocolate and nuts
- Some math skills – to make change (if needed)
- Able to stand for shift
- ALLERGY WARNING: Peanuts, Latex Gloves

Silent Auction at Gilda's Club Gnome Garden (2 volunteers per shift)

Help guide visitors who wish to bid on gnomes on display. Proceeds going to Gilda's Club Greater Toronto.

- Duties may vary. Collecting information, making sure bidders complete the registration form and receive a bidding number. Collecting and neatening the bidding form area.
- Answering questions about gnomes, auction and celebrities (information will be provided)

Preferred Qualification and Skills

- Detail oriented
- Pleasant and Welcoming
- Comfortable speaking with people
- Good penmanship

Presenter Aide/Stage Help (1-2 volunteers per shift, depending on floral demos)

Help invite visitors in/discuss topics with them, assist presenter as determined by the Stage (Unilock Celebrity Stage, IsuzuGarden Solutions Stage presented by Harrowsmith) Coordinator.

- Duties may vary depending on what is on each stage, and if Stage Coordinator has their own help.
- Most presentations are scheduled to start after 11am and finish before 5pm. Please check the schedule in the festival guide to make sure volunteers are at each stage 15 minutes prior to the start of a presentation.

* Floral Artist Day – Friday March 20th, Volunteers may be asked to assist in removing product and neatening up the area associated with the Canada Blooms Floral Artist of the Year Imposed Design Class. Ask Volunteer Coordinator for Time ****

- Assist Stage Coordinator as needed
 - Assist with distribution and collection of surveys
 - "Work the door" to invite visitors in
 - Act as crowd control, facilitate seating
 - Tidy area between speakers, this is especially important after floral demonstrations, where area needs to be cleaned up quickly.
 - Possibly welcome speakers and guests, introduce speakers
 - Assist presenter with book sales as needed (setting up table with books)
 - Enjoy lectures

Preferred Qualification and Skills

- Detail oriented
- Pleasant and Welcoming
- Able to follow instructions of the Speaker Coordinator
- Comfortable introducing speakers, only if needed

General Greeter – (4-8per shift – 2 locations, Hall B and Heritage Court)

Volunteers in this position are ambassadors to Canada Blooms, the first point of contact for people who are looking to plan their visit. Visitors may be asked to control the flow of traffic from the ticket area to the main entrance , to offer directions and information to incoming guests as needed. Provide magazines and /or maps to visitors. Hand out sponsor flyers/bags as needed. Volunteers will alert Festival Staff in Salon 107of any issues that arise, Volunteers may also be asked to man the self-serve ticket counters to show visitors how to use the machines to purchase tickets using credit card only.

Preferred Qualification and Skills

- Friendly & Welcoming
- Able to read a floor plan follow information given by Volunteer Coordinator
- Able to work with all types of personalities

General Help (4 per shift)

Volunteers may be asked to do a variety of different tasks from refilling magazines and relieving other volunteers for breaks to general “runner”. May be “floater” for various areas to cover washroom breaks

Preferred Qualification and Skills

- Able to stand for periods of time
- Able to lift up to 30 lbs.
- Able to follow directions

* Floral Artist Day – Friday March 20th, Volunteers may be asked to assist in removing product and neaten up the area associated with the Canada Blooms Floral Artist of the Year Imposed Design Class. Ask Volunteer Coordinator for Time ****

If you are unable to commit to a specific day or time, please sign up for General Help/Duties to be Assigned and the Volunteer Coordinator(s) will find a job for you when you arrive.

Toronto Flower Show

The Master Gardeners and Garden Club Members staff this area, if you are a Master Gardener or Garden Club of Toronto Member please contact the Garden Club of Toronto at gardencluboftoronto (at) on.aibn.com

CAFA Couture Models

CAFA Couture Floral Fashion Show takes place on the main stage on Friday, March 20 at 12pm and Saturday, March 21 at 4pm. However models may be asked to try on Floral Fashions prior to show on the stage. If you are interested please contact Jennifer Harvey at beleafs2010@hotmail.com.

Flower Crown Bar

CAFA is presenting a Flower Crown Bar for visitors on specific hours 11pm-3pm each day. If you have experience working with floral product and are interested in helping out, please contact Jennifer Harvey at beleafs2010@hotmail.com.

Please note that although we try to provide volunteers with their preferred duty , Canada Blooms and the Volunteer Coordinator reserve the right to allocate volunteers as needed to various duties.

NOTE: If you require slips to be signed please alert the Volunteer Coordinator(s) the first day that you arrive, they will then be able to keep track of your volunteer time and make sure all documents are signed in a timely fashion.

THANK YOU!

We thank all volunteers for generously donating their time, energy and expertise. Volunteers are the backbone of Canada Blooms and without you our festival would not be the successful festival it is year after year.
