The sky’s the limit at Canada Blooms

Garden designers, builders and floral artists to captivate with creative theme

TORONTO, ON – For more than 20 years, Canada Blooms has been inspiring visitors with its creative floral designs, unique seminars, breathtaking gardens and expert advice. Year after year Canada Blooms transforms the Enercare Centre into a colourful, idyllic space for guests to explore and this year, visitors will be blown away as designers and landscapers take their creations to new heights with 2020’s theme, Birds of a Feather.

Taking place March 13-22, 2020, Canada Blooms Birds of a Feather gives garden designers, builders, floral artists, competitors and presenters an opportunity to explore imagery incorporating birds, feathers, bird baths and more. Alternatively, designers can choose to interpret Birds of a Feather figuratively while focusing on similarities between people, plants and insects.

“Every year, thousands of people flock to Canada Blooms to experience lush gardens and beautiful floral designs,” says Terry Caddo, Executive Director of Canada Blooms. “We thought that it would be fun to let our designers get creative and ‘spread their wings’ with this year’s theme.”

One feature garden that promises to stand out this year is the Bienenstock Natural Playground. As the largest garden in Canada Blooms’ history, Bienenstock is creating a full sensory experience with nature that is accessible to everyone. The fully interactive and barrier-free play space will provide an accessible natural environment for individuals of all ages with special needs, allowing people with all abilities to hear the birds sing.

Other garden builders and designers include BB Pools and Landscapes, Landscape by Evergreen Ltd. Mountainhill Landscape Professionals, Terraform Contracting, two-time garden builder of the year J. Garfield Thompson Landscape and more.

“Birds, gardens and gardeners are all part of a healthy ecosystem and we can’t wait to see what our designers and builders create this year,” says Caddo.

Co-located with the National Home Show, Canada Blooms takes place March 13-22, 2020, at the Enercare Centre at Exhibition Place in Toronto. For more information or for tickets, please visit canadablooms.com. Follow Canada Blooms on Twitter @CanadaBlooms and Like it on Facebook.
